

About EJGT

Mission Statement

'Making a difference'

The European Junior Golf Tour provides a competitive playing experience and platform for junior golfers to develop their game.

The EJGT management team will ensure the events and activities will be professionally organised and managed to the highest possible standards.

The EJGT Directors and Staff are professionally and highly experienced in the golf market place.

Aims and Objectives

- To provide a series of tournaments based on age group categories in a competitive environment
- To select premier golf courses providing a challenging test of the golfers skills
- To assist and educate the players to achieve their maximum potential and fulfil their own personal goals and aspirations
- To create a fun, friendly and stimulating environment for our members, guests and families

Tour Patron & Ambassador

Andrew Murray is a highly respected and well known English professional golfer.

He turned professional in 1972 and played on the European Tour from 1979 through 1995 before calling time on his career, after suffering from spondylitis for many years.

He recorded one win on the European Tour, at the 1989 Panasonic European Open. That season, he finished a career best 28th on the Order of Merit.

Murray has since worked as a commentator and analyst for BBC television and radio. After turning 50, he has combined that work with a return to tournament golf on the European Seniors Tour.

Andrew Murray Golf company aims to provide complete golf packages through golf day, clinics, tournaments, golf travel and coaching to both the corporate and individual markets.

Professional attention...Golf is about freedom, nature, enjoyment and of course competition. At Andrew Murray Golf, we only have one goal: "To give you the best golf experience we possibly can". You arrive and the only thing you have to think about is playing good golf... and we take care of everything else! Andrew Murray.

Tour Patron & Ambassador

Joanne Morley enjoyed a very successful amateur career at all levels. After turning professional she went on to two victories on the Ladies European Tour, winning the German Open twice.

She joined the LPGA tour in 1997 and won over $1 million.

After playing in the Solheim Cup she also became the Vice Captain on two occasions including the winning team in 2011.

Joanne is a big supporter of junior golf and has her own Joanne Morley annual junior event at her home club, Sale in Cheshire. Nowadays Joanne prefers to caddy for and encourage new and young professionals competing on the Ladies European Tour passing on her vast wealth of knowledge and experience.

The EJGT Tour Key Personnel

The Tour Directors responsible for the day to day running of the EJGT are two highly experienced Golf Professionals with a combined 60 years experience in golf.

They are assisted by the management team of Steve Birks, Founder and MD of 1010 Systems Ltd, Chester.

Roger Shutt – Profile

My professional golf career started in 1974 as Assistant Professional at Sandiway Golf Club. In 1978 I was appointed the Head Professional at the Club and was nominated as the Cheshire Golf Union County Coach. After I decided to stop playing competitively on the European Tour in 1983 I turned my full focus to coaching with particular emphasis in the area of junior golf development.

In 2011 I created and launched the TommyT Junior Tour aimed at providing fun and competitive golf events for children aged from 3-11 years. Working with Rob Ashbrook and the Brookfield Junior Academy the Tour quickly became a popular niche in the golf fraternity both with the children and their families.

Following two successful seasons of events in the North West region the Tour in 2013 went nationwide with excellent response from juniors in the South of England and 'sell-out' bookings for all age groups!

Robert Ashbrook – Profile

- A committed and proactive Golf Professional who is advanced in his field.
- A motivational and inspirational teacher who enjoys being part of a successful and productive team.

My first Professional Golf career started in 1994 as Assistant Professional at Hill Valley Golf Club under the Head Professional and co- owner Tony Minshall. I have also worked in golf both in New Zealand and Portugal.

In 2002 I was offered the position as Head Professional at Brookfield Golf Club a new club in the heart of Cheshire. I initiated the setup of the course and structure of golf within the club which is now thriving with over 600 members. In 2007 I formed the Brookfield Golf Club Junior Golf Academy which has steadily developed into one of Cheshire's most prolific junior academies with over seventy young members between the ages of 4 and 14. We run regular competition for both the children and their parents which creates a natural interest within the family environment.

In 2008 I was recognised by the PGA for my contribution to golf and was awarded my Advanced Professional Status.

In 2010 I became Director of Golf / Club Secretary at Brookfield which has enabled me to expand my interest in junior golf – the golfers of the future.
